

Customers Regain Control Over Their Data With Hitachi Content Platform

CUSTOMER VOICES

The Hitachi Content Platform (HCP) portfolio helps you automate data management, provide safeguards for sensitive data and modernize data protection. It also enables governance and compliance, and helps you accelerate productivity and surface insights through sophisticated search and analytics. Our uniquely integrated approach to file services simplifies management, optimizes costs, and provides a central way to maintain visibility and control as well as search and discovery spanning the data center, mobile devices, remote offices and public cloud storage services.
