The Challenge

Simplify time-consuming processes

Reduce complexity caused by data silos

Provide staff with a more holistic overview of operations

Like our range of service offerings, our systems landscape is complex, with dozens of data management platforms used across different departments. We wanted a single, 360-degree overview of service operations across the whole enterprise to help our staff to serve customers even more effectively.

– Emanuel Zehnder, Head of Information Architecture, Swisscom Business Customers

The Solution

Create a central data hub with Pentaho Data Integration, a Lumada portfolio product.

The Outcome

360-degree view of service operations

Real-time insight across 30 business units

Process more than 100 million data records daily

Greater insight empowers staff to deliver better service
