You must read these License Terms under which Hitachi will license Software to You. Capitalized terms will have the meanings indicated in Section 22 below.

BY DOWNLOADING, INSTALLING, COPYING, ACCESSING, OR USING THE SOFTWARE, OR BY CHOOSING THE "I ACCEPT" OPTION LOCATED ON OR ADJACENT TO THE SCREEN WHERE THIS AGREEMENT MAY BE DISPLAYED, YOU AGREE TO THE SOFTWARE LICENSE TERMS. (c) If the Software includes certain software licensed under the GNU General Public License or other similar Open Source Software with a license that requires the licensor to make the source code publicly available ("GPL Software") and the applicable source code was not included in the Software, then You may obtain a copy of the applicable source code for the GPL Software by either: (i) requesting Hitachi mail the open source code to You; or (ii) downloading the open source code by following the links on the website referenced in the Open Source License Website.

For Software licensed under an enterprise license, Hitachi grants to You right to make copies of the Software solely for Your own internal use within the scope of the enterprise license. You may also make one (1) copy of back-up or archival copies of Software solely for Your own internal use, provided that You ensure that such copy bears Hitachi's proprietary notices, labels or marks. You must reproduce on all copies made, all proprietary and copyright notices contained on or in the Software.

7. Software Transfers.

Except to the extent otherwise provided in any applicable Open Source Software License, You must not transfer the Software to any other person or entity, without Hitachi's prior written consent. You may, however, transfer the Operating Software to a third party ("transferee") solely with the related Hitachi equipment, but You must ensure that the transferee agrees to the terms of these Software License Terms and additional relevant license terms. The Operating Software is provided to the transferee on an "as is" basis, with no extension of any existing warranty or support arrangements. When the transfer is complete, You must remove and destroy all copies of the Operating Software in Your possession or under Your control. You must also permanently remove all Software from any media upon which it is stored prior to disposing of the media.

8. Location of Software.

If the Equipment upon which You are authorized to Use the Software becomes temporarily inoperable, You may load and Use the Software on another of Your computer systems located at the same premises, until the original Equipment becomes operable. Otherwise, You must always get Hitachi's prior written consent before changing the Equipment on which the Software is to be Used, or its location.

9. Verification Rights.

Hitachi or its independent auditor may, upon reasonable notice to You, examine and audit Your records and systems to ensure compliance with applicable software licenses. The audit will be performed during normal business hours in a manner which does not unduly interfere with Your business operations. If the audit shows that You are using more copies of the Software than permitted under Your applicable license(s), Hitachi may charge You additional usage fees.

10. Limited Warranty.

Subject to this Section 10, Hitachi warrants to You that, during the Warranty Period, the Software will function in accordance with its Published Specifications. These restrictions are in addition to those stated in Section 5.

12. Intellectual Property Claims.

Subject to Sections 5 and 11 and the exceptions in this Section, if a third party makes a claim against You that the Software infringes that party's patent rights or copyright ("IP Claim"), Hitachi will provide the following recourse (which, to the extent permitted by applicable law, comprises Your sole and exclusive remedy against Hitachi and Hitachi's sole and exclusive liability to You for the IP Claim):

(a) Hitachi will defend or settle the IP Claim at our option and cost, and pay to You the amount of damages, losses and costs finally awarded against You or settled by You (with Hitachi's written consent), provided that You (i) promptly notify Hitachi of the IP Claim (ii) allow Hitachi to solely manage the defense and settlement of the IP Claim; (iii) cooperate with and assist Hitachi as Hitachi requires (and Hitachi will pay Your costs of doing so); and (iv) are not in breach of these License Terms or any other agreement that You have with Hitachi or any of its affiliates.

(b) Hitachi will, at its option and cost, do any of the following in relation to Software which is or which Hitachi considers is likely to be the subject of an IP Claim: (i) secure the rights for You to continue to use the Software without infringement; or (ii) modify the Software so that it is not infringing; or (iii) replace it with something that has similar functionality to the Software. If Hitachi considers that none of these options are reasonably possible, Hitachi will provide You with a refund, provided that You promptly return the Software to Hitachi.

Hitachi will not be liable to provide any remedies in this Section with respect to (a) any Third Party Software that is not included on Hitachi's standard price list at the time of the IP Claim; (b) any Third Party Related OSS or (c) otherwise to any Software that You have, or any person on Your behalf has: (i) modified or combined with any third party product not resold and authorized or approved by Hitachi, (ii) used outside the stated standard operating environment for the Software or for an unauthorized purpose or (iii) failed to use a more recent version of the Software that was available to You and would have avoided the infringement or where the IP Claim arises due to any material or item that You own or have sourced from a third party Yourself.

If You sell or transfer to another person or entity title in or right to use any Software, you will ensure that all applicable export restrictions of the nature described in this section are observed. Each party will comply with all applicable laws and regulations relating to anti-corruption and bribery, including the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, and not engage in any activity, practice or conduct that would constitute an offence under such laws and regulations. If such management are unable to resolve the dispute within 30 days, the Parties may resort to alternate dispute resolution such as arbitration (if both Parties agree) or otherwise a Party may seek recourse from the courts. Either party may seek injunctive or other urgent equitable relief at any time.

21. Miscellaneous.

Neither Party will be responsible for any failure to meet any of our obligations (except payment obligations) due to matters beyond our reasonable control provided reasonable efforts have been made to perform them. You must not assign, or otherwise transfer any of Your rights under these License Terms without Hitachi's prior written agreement. Notices made under these License Terms must be in writing to a senior executive. Notices will be deemed given: where they are hand delivered, when a duly authorized employee or representative of the recipient gives written acknowledgement of receipt; for email communication, at the time the communication enters into the information system of the recipient; for posting, three days after dispatch and for fax, on receipted transmission of the fax. Rights and obligations under these License Terms, which by their nature should survive the termination or expiry, will remain in effect after termination. If either of us fails to promptly exercise any contractual right, this does not of itself mean that the right has been waived. For a waiver of a right to be valid, it must be written and it will not give rise to an ongoing waiver or any expectation that the right will not be enforced, unless it is expressly stated to do so. These Terms may not be modified except in writing signed by an authorized representative of each party. There are no third-party beneficiaries to these License Terms. All oral or written communications, understandings, proposals, representations and warranties are by agreement, excluded and are of no force or effect (to the extent permitted at law). These License Terms (and all related Quotes, Orders and Order Confirmations that comprise a transaction to which these License Terms apply) are the entire agreement relating to their subject matter. You grant to Hitachi the limited right to use Your company and brand name and/or logo in promotional materials, including press releases, presentations and customer references regarding the sale of Software. These permissions are free of charge and for worldwide use in any medium. The foregoing notwithstanding, Hitachi agrees to obtain Your prior written approval for publicity that contains claims, quotes, endorsements or attributions by You, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld.
