DATASHEET

Take Advantage of Significant Savings and Scheduling Benefits That Best Fit Your Needs

Get the Most Flexibility and Value for Your Training

Hitachi Training Units

Hitachi Training Units help you protect your training budget, cover your organization from unexpected medium-term training requirements, and enable you to earn a valuable discount on volume purchases.

One Training Unit typically allows for one person to attend a publicly scheduled, one-day instructor-led (ILT) course. It can also be exchanged for any Hitachi Vantara training product or service. You select the number of Training Units that best meet your training requirements, budget allowance and time restrictions.

By purchasing Hitachi Training Units you can:

- Make it easier for your employees to update important IT skills.
- Maximize learning opportunities for your employees.
- Simplify and protect your training budget with a single, fixed-price purchase.
- Avoid surprise expenditures as training packages are purchased in advance.
- Take advantage of flexible, convenient scheduling.

- Benefit from generous discounts on regularly priced training expenditures.

Terms

Training Units are valid for one year from the date of purchase and are acquired in any number. All Hitachi Vantara education products and services are priced in Training Units as well as in local currency.

Hitachi Training Card

Take advantage of unlimited instructor-led training (ILT) courses taught by storage experts. In addition, there is a wide range of convenient, virtual instructor-led training (vILT) courses and web-based trainings (WBT).

Hitachi Training Cards will help you protect your training budget and cover your organization from unexpected medium-term training requirements. Simplify your training budget with one, fixed-price purchase and one purchase order.

Terms

A Hitachi Training Card is valid for one year from the date of purchase. The Training Card is non-transferable and must be used by the named customer employee. The Training Card is used for
